WHAT'S IN YOUR CROCKPOT?

Tasty ingredients for your spiritual stew.

The harvest is plentiful!

Driving around mid Michigan, one sees the wheat fields are turning that golden color that radiates the summer sunlight. Soon the combines will be out in force gleaning the grain and pouring it into wagons so it can be hauled away to mills where it's turned into flour and meal for food. The harvest is plentiful!

The rest of what Jesus says is that the workers are few. I am grateful that the Lord of the Harvest sends the workers. Who are the workers – and how do I get them into the fields? For those of us who remember the old shampoo commercial... "I told two friends, and they told two friends, and so on, and so on." All I have to do is share my excitement with a few others and let them know how to get involved in this movement, and the workers will be as plentiful as the harvest.

I'm also reminded that Jesus says, "unless a grain of wheat falls into the earth and dies, it remains alone; but if it dies, it bears much fruit." [John 12:24] I have to let go of the stalk, jump into the combine and allow myself to be milled. One grain of wheat milled into flour can feed a lot more people than I believe.

Within our worship of late we've added the "music moment" and some contemporary music. No complaints that Price or I have heard, so I take it that there is acceptance to some of the newer songs/hymns. Shine Jesus Shine was our song of the month for July and we also did Because He Lives and The Summons. Music suggestions appear at the back of our New Century Hymnal as "Proper" with a number which is why I add "Proper" for the week at the beginning of our worship text. Our song of the month for August will be, As the Deer Pants for Water.

I have met the two new pastors in Richmond: Katie Butler is Interim at Trinity Lutheran, and Rev. Sunhwa is at First United Methodist. As is tradition, the worship for September 11, the Sunday of Good Old Days, will be at Trinity Lutheran. I hope many will plan on being there as our three local churches pray together.

Be a blessing to all you encounter. See you in church.

Please note: The service for the Ordination of Traci Bartell will be live streamed through the YouTube site of First Congregational, Rochester. <https://www.youtube.com/channel/UCKXgwsMsZdX7cPW34QwebPA/featured>. This is an Eastern Association of the MI Conference event.

The 2023 Stewardship campaign is underway, so watch your mailbox for a letter along with a commitment card and Time and Talent sheet coming your way. Your financial pledge is essential for us to plan our operating budget for 2023.

This year's theme from the United Church of Christ is, "From Bread and Cup to Faith and Giving" which makes the connection between our experience of God and our generosity as disciples.

The last two years have brought many changes to our church, and your generous gifts have helped us to sustain and adapt new ideas to stay connected during the pandemic and as we go forward. Please join others in our congregation by making a financial pledge for the coming year. And please return your commitment card and Time and Talent sheet by September 11. Thank you.

The Log in Your Eye

This humorous illustration of how not to get along at college also demonstrates Jesus' teaching in Matthew 7:3-5.

A young man from Scotland went to study at an English university. A month into the school year, his mother visited and asked how he liked living in the dorm.

"It's awful!" he exclaimed. "The fellow in the room next door bangs his head on the wall constantly, and the one on the other side screams all day."

"How do you stand it?" his mother asked in amazement.

"Oh, I ignore them," her son replied. "I just sit here quietly, playing my bagpipes."
